 Misrepresentation

Prevents all products from showing in United States

 During the review you requested on Jan 27, 2025, Google found this still to be an issue. Before you request another review, make sure you meet the requirements.

Based on the information available about your business, there is reason to believe that customers are being misled on Google. Review the Misrepresentation policy and make changes to your Merchant Center and/or online store.

Make sure your Merchant Center and online store follow the following best practices / guidelines

- Provide transparency about your business identity, business model, policies and how your customers can interact with you
- Promote your online reputation by showing reviews or highlighting any badges or seals of approval
- Use a professional design for your online store that includes an SSL certificate
- Provide information in the business information settings in your Merchant Center
- Follow SEO guidelines, improve your eligibility for seller ratings and match your product data in your Merchant Center with your online store
